

Union Internationale de Pentathlon Moderne
(International Union of the Modern Pentathlon)

STATUTES

CHAPTER I – TITLE, OBJECTS, TERM, SEAT

Article 1

An Association under Monegasque law with an international calling, entitled

UNION INTERNATIONALE DE PENTATHLON MODERNE,
abbreviated as UIPM, is hereby formed within the framework of Act number 1072 of 27 June 1984 for an indeterminate term. The Association shall be governed by the general principles of law applicable to contracts and obligations and by the provisions of the present Statutes.

Article 2

The objects of the present Association shall be:

- to promote the development of the Modern Pentathlon with a view to raising the level of performances in this sport as well as in other multidisciplinary sports.
- The present Association shall exercise the general management of all of these sports at international level, shall lay down all international regulations applicable in all countries and shall supervise the application and good enforcement of these regulations and the organisation of all official events and sports competitions (Hospitality including Food & Beverage).
- The present Association shall develop friendly, loyal collaboration between all national organisations or federations with a view to promoting non-violent practice of the Modern Pentathlon and other multidisciplinary sports.
- The means of action of the Association shall, in particular, be: all sports publications, meetings, conferences, exhibitions, sports grants, aid, etc.

Article 3

The seat and registered office of the Association shall be in Monaco. It may be fixed at any location in the territory of the Principality by a decision of the Executive Board.

Article 4

The financial year of the Association shall start on 1 January and finish on 31 December.

CHAPTER II – COMPOSITION OF THE ASSOCIATION AND CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION, RESIGNATION OR EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

Article 5

The Association shall comprise

- founder members, signatories of the Statutes of the Association;
- active members, who comprise the national organisations or federations which officially represents the Modern Pentathlon in all aspects in each country represented;
- provisional active members, coopted by the Executive Board of the Association, whose cooption must be submitted for confirmation by the next Assembly of the members of the Association;
- honorary members, appointed for their personal fame or their commitment to the defence of the interests of sport in general and of the Modern Pentathlon in particular;
- honorary members, appointed in recognition of exceptional services rendered to the Association and to the sports which it represents;
- benefactor members, appointed for their moral and financial contribution to the outcome of the objectives of the Association.

Only active members may vote at the Assemblies of the Association, at which all essential decisions may be made for the sports represented by the Association. All other members may attend these Meetings but may not vote at them.

Article 6

Applications for admission shall be addressed either to the President or to the Secretary-General of the Association. Application for admission shall entail adherence to the present Statutes. Provisional admission of all categories of Members shall be decided by the Executive Board which shall submit these nominations for confirmation by the next General Assembly. A country may not be represented by more than one organisation.

Article 7

A member of the Association ceases to be a member:

- 1) by resignation addressed by recorded delivery letter with a request for notice of receipt either to the President or to the Secretary-General of the Association. Resignation addressed after 1 January shall not exempt the member resigning from paying the membership fee for the year in progress.
- 2) by expulsion decided by the Executive Board for serious grounds, non-respect of the Statutes or non-payment of the annual membership fee for the year in progress (three months after being reminded by recorded delivery letter) and after a formal demand which is not followed by an amendment. The member concerned is first requested to provide an explanation. The member may appeal against this decision to the General Assembly of the Association, the decision of which shall be final.
Excluded members shall be obliged to pay the membership fee for the year in progress; they may not claim any repayment of sums paid.

CHAPTER III – ADMINISTRATION OF THE ASSOCIATION

Article 8

The Association is administered by an Executive Board vested with most extensive powers of management. The Executive Board is of at least 15 members and at most 30 members chosen from among the active members who are capable to take legal action.

Taking into account the international character of the Association, the President and the majority of the members of the Executive Board shall not be obliged to reside in Monaco.

Article 9

The members of the Executive Board are elected by secret ballot by an absolute majority of the General Assembly for a period of four (4) years.

The Presidents of the Continental Confederations, the President of the Athletes' Committee, the President of the Medical Committee and the Secretary General are members by right of the Executive Board.

In the event of a tie, the most senior member shall be elected and, in the event of members having equal seniority, the oldest member shall be elected.

The Executive Board, with the exception of the members by right, shall be re-elected in its entirety. Departing members may be re-elected.

Article 10

If a position on the Executive Board becomes vacant, the Executive Board shall procure a temporary replacement. A final replacement shall be decided by the next General Assembly.

Article 11

The functions of the Executive Board shall be decided by the General Assembly, which shall elect:

- 1) a President whose task shall be:
 - to ensure the effective management of the Association;
 - to represent the Association in all acts of civil life;

- to chair the meetings of the Executive Board and the General Assemblies with a casting vote and to sign the minutes of these meetings;
- to implement the decisions made by the General Assemblies and the Executive Board;
- to sign, jointly with the competent members of the Executive Board, all contracts binding the Association to third parties, unless he receives special authority from the Executive Board to sign alone.

2) Five Vice-Presidents.

The Executive Board nominates, upon proposal of the President, the first Vice-President with determination of his tasks, and the four other Vice-Presidents whose functions are determined by the Executive Board.

The task of the first Vice-President consists in assisting the President in the accomplishment of his tasks, replacing him if he is absent and, in these cases, he shall have the same powers as the President.

3) The Treasurer, who is responsible for managing the funds of the Association, for the collection of contributions, for supervising all financial activities and for preparing an annual report and financial statements on the accounts for the financial year of the Association, approved by the Executive Board.

Article 12

The Executive Board may delegate any powers which it deems appropriate to one or more of its members by special, written power of attorney for one or more specific objects.

The Executive Board appoints a Secretary General whose task is to carry out all administrative work, in particular, following the decisions of the Executive Board. He may not vote in the Executive Board.

Article 13

The Executive Board meets, when convened by its President, at least twice per annum and as often as the interest of the Association requires. A quorum of at least eight members is required.

Decisions shall be made by a majority of the members present. In the event of a tie, the President shall have a casting vote.

Voting by proxy is not permitted.

CHAPTER IV – GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE ASSOCIATION

Article 14

When properly constituted, the General Assembly shall represent the Supreme Power of the Association.

It meets at least once per annum when convened by the President of the Executive Board who, moreover, shall be obliged to convene a General Assembly on the request of the Executive Board when the General Assembly is required to rule on urgent matters or if at least 1/3 of the active members, who are up to date with their membership fees, demand such a meeting.

The President shall summon the members of the Association to the General Assembly at least 90 days before the date of the meeting. The provisional agenda shall be drawn up by the Executive Board. Proposals and requests for intervention shall be addressed by letter to the Secretary-General at least 60 days before the date of an ordinary General Assembly and at least 30 days before the date of an extraordinary General Assembly. They shall be entered in the agenda of the General Assembly in question.

Article 15

The General Assembly shall be chaired by the President of the Executive Board of the Association.

When the election of the Executive Board takes place, the General Assembly shall be chaired by its most senior member assisted by two tellers of vote chosen by the Assembly.

The Secretariat, headed by the Secretary-General, shall function as the office of the General Assembly and the Executive Board.

Article 16

In order to allow varied debate, the General Assembly shall be composed of at least half of the active members of the Association.

If this condition is not met, another General Assembly shall be convened immediately by the President and the resolutions shall be valid regardless of the number of members present; however, these resolutions may concern only the objects on the agenda of the first Assembly.

Article 17

The General Assembly:

- 1) shall elect, when necessary, the members of the Executive Board of the Association;
- 2) shall hear reports on the management by the Executive Board and on the financial situation and the activities of the Association;
It shall approve the accounts for the past financial year and shall vote for the draft budget for a period of four years as well as for the budget for the following financial year.
It shall decide on the application of surplus receipts, if any. Under no circumstances may this surplus be distributed among the members of the Association.
- 3) rules on applications for membership and fixes the membership dues;
- 4) makes decisions concerning the present Statutes and Rules on the Internal Organisation, on Competitions and other Rules;
- 5) knows all matters affecting the running of the Association.

To this end, it shall debate and make a final decision on all proposals on the agenda.

If one of its members refers to it a matter which is not on the agenda, it may accept immediate discussion of the matter if the matter is urgent and if at least 2/3 of the voting members at the General Assembly approve of this procedure or it may request the Executive Board to provide it with a report.

Article 18

The resolutions of the General Assembly shall be made by a majority of the votes of the members present. A majority of 2/3 of the votes of the members present shall be required to adopt a motion concerning amendment of the Statutes, the Rules on Internal Organisation and the Competition Rules as well as the election of a personality as an honorary member.

Votes are expressed by raising the hand unless a secret ballot is requested by any member present.

CHAPTER V – SUPERVISION OF THE ASSOCIATION

Article 19

In pursuance of Article 12 of Act no. 1072 of 27 June 1984, the President shall be obliged, within a month, to declare to the Secretariat-General of the Ministry of State, which will issue acknowledgement of receipt,:

- 1) any change of address of the registered office;
- 2) any modification of the composition of the Executive Board and of the functions of its members;
- 3) any acquisition or disposal of premises and property;
- 4) any decision by the General Assembly to amend the Statutes; in this case, the declaration shall be accompanied, if necessary, by the request for authorisation provided for in Article 8 of Act no. 1072;
- 5) any decision by the General Assembly entailing the voluntary dissolution of the Association.

Article 20

In pursuance of Article 13 of Act no. 1072 of 27 June 1984, the members of the Executive Board are obliged to publish, in the "Journal de Monaco", a notice stating:

- 1) the title, the objects and the address of the registered office;
- 2) any amendments affecting this information;
- 3) the decision entailing the dissolution of the Association.

Publication shall take place in the month which follows either the publication of the Ministerial Authorisation Order or the pronouncement of the dissolution.

Article 21

In pursuance of Article 14 of Act no. 1072 of 27 June 1984, the members of the Executive Board shall keep a register containing the resolutions of the organs of the Association and shall mention acknowledgements of receipt and administrative authorisations.

This register shall be presented each time it is requested by the administrative or judicial authorities.

CHAPTER VI – ENDOWMENT – ANNUAL RESOURCES

Article 22

The endowment shall comprise a sum of one million US dollars.

Article 23

The annual receipts of the Association comprise:

- 1) income from its property;
- 2) the membership fees from its members;
- 3) grants from the International Olympic Committee;
- 4) resources created in exceptional cases, subject to the approval of the competent authority (meetings, collections, conferences, tombola, lotteries, concerts, balls and shows authorised for the profit of the Association);
- 5) generous gifts granted to it subject to the authorisation provided for by Articles 778 and 804 of the Civil Code.

CHAPTER VII – AMENDMENT OF THE STATUTES

Article 24

The present Statutes of the Association may be amended following a proposal by the Executive Board or by 2/3 of the members of the General Assembly.

In either case, the proposals for amendments shall be entered in the agenda of the next General Assembly, which shall be sent to all the members of the Association at least 90 days in advance.

Article 25

The General Assembly shall meet under the conditions provided for in Articles 15 and 16 of the present Statutes.

The present Statutes may only be amended by a majority of 2/3 of the members present.

CHAPTER VIII – DISSOLUTION – LIQUIDATION – DEVOLUTION OF THE PATRIMONY

Article 26

Voluntary dissolution may take place

- 1) when the Association has become without an object;
- 2) when a decision to this effect has been made by the General Assembly.

Article 27

The dissolution of the Association shall require a majority of $\frac{3}{4}$ of the votes in favour of this motion at two successive General Assemblies. These Assemblies shall be convened specially for this purpose.

Article 28

In the event of dissolution, the property of the Association may be liquidated either by the General Assembly or by liquidators appointed by the General Assembly for this purpose.

The net assets shall be allocated to a group in the Principality pursuing a comparable objective.

Article 29

All situations not provided for in the present Statues shall be the concern of the Executive Board, which shall be responsible for drawing up internal regulations which shall be approved and amended by the General Assembly of the Association.

UIPM Rules on Internal Organisation

CHAPTER I. - PURPOSE

- 1.1 These Rules are based on Art 2, 17 N° 4 and 29 of the Statutes of the Union Internationale de Pentathlon Moderne under Monegasque law. They aim at decreeing standing orders for the Governing Bodies and other organs of the UIPM, at laying down responsibilities, penalties and disciplinary measures, stating on eligibility, and at establishing the UIPM Court of Arbitration. They further relate to voting and liability within the Union.

CHAPTER II. - OBJECTS

- 2.1 The International Union for Modern Pentathlon (UIPM) is a member of the International Olympic Committee (IOC), the Association of the Summer Olympic International Federations (ASOIF) and the General Association of International Sports Federations (GAISF).
- 2.2 Within the objects of the UIPM lies the support of Members to raise the level of performance in Modern Pentathlon and other related multi-sports.

UIPM ELECTION RULES

CHAPTER I. - SCOPE

1. Elections within the UIPM are ruled by Art 9 and 15 of the UIPM Statutes as well as by Chapters V - VII and X - XI of the UIPM Rules on Internal Organisation. These Election Rules are based on them.

CHAPTER II. - ISSUANCE OF THE WRITS FOR ELECTIONS

2. Elections for the Athletes' Committee as well as for the Masters' Committee take place at the World Championships or Master Championships respectively in the Year of the Olympic Games upon decision of the UIPM Executive Board. The writs for elections of the two Committees must be announced by the UIPM Secretary General on the UIPM Website and must be issued by him to all National Federations at least 120 days before the opening of the World Championships or Master Championships respectively. The National Federations are responsible to disseminate this information to all their active competitors and those competitors having been active within the last two seasons prior to the elections, as well as to all their Master competitors, respectively, both at least 90 days before the opening of the respective event.

CHAPTER III. - NOMINATIONS

- 3.1 Nominations must be signed by the President or by the Secretary General of the respective National Federation.
- 3.2 Nominations of candidates must be presented to the UIPM Secretary General at least 60 days before the day of the elections.
- 3.3 Proposed candidates must agree to their candidacy verbally, on the phone or by writing.
- 3.4 The personal presence of the candidate at the elections is desirable, but not mandatory.

CHAPTER IV. - CONDUCT OF THE ELECTIONS

- 4.1 At the beginning of the elections there must be elected an election committee consisting of a chairperson and two more members of different nationality. The election committee has the task to conduct the elections.
- 4.2 For the quorum at elections by the General Assembly see Art 16 of the Statutes of the UIPM. For the quorum at elections at the Executive Board see Art 13 of the Statutes of the UIPM. For all other elections a duly called electoral body is competent to pass a voting regardless of the number of the votes present. For elections of the Athletes' Committee and of the Masters' Committee only one delegate per National Federation, designated by the respective National Federation, are entitled to vote. These delegates must not be candidates.
- 4.3 The elections are conducted in a secret poll using ballots.
- 4.4 As a rule elections shall be conducted according the sequence defined in the agenda. Any exception to this rule must be decided by a simple majority of the respective electoral body.
- 4.5 At the General Assembly elections shall be made in the following sequence:
 - a) President;
 - b) five Vice-Presidents;
 - c) Treasurer;
 - d) Member for Sport;
 - e) Member for Marketing;
 - f) Member for Media;

- g) Member for Development;
- h) 2 Honorary Auditors;
- i) 10 members of the Technical Committee;
- j) 4 members of the Medical Committee;
- k) 4 members of the Business Affairs Committee.

4.6 At the Executive Board elections shall be made in the following sequence:

- e) Vice President for Business Affairs.

4.7 At the Athletes' Committee and Masters' Committee elections female candidates shall be elected before male candidates. If there is more than one candidate per Continent, then the election will be made by Continent in the following manner – Africa, Asia, Europe, North America, South America, and Oceania. Only athletes from a respective Continent can take part to the election of the athletes' representative from the Continent.

4.8 Elections can be made separately for each function or for an entire body.

CHAPTER V. - ELECTION RESULTS

5.1 If only one candidate is nominated for a function, the candidate is elected when gaining the absolute majority of the votes cast. If this is not the case another candidate must be found.

5.2 If there are more than one candidate for a function to be elected, the candidates shall be elected that are able to gain the majority of the votes in the first ballot thereby reaching the absolute majority of the votes cast.

If no candidate is able to gain the absolute majority of the votes cast in the first ballot, another ballot must be held where the candidate is elected that has gained the majority of the votes cast.

5.3 If there are only as many candidates as persons required for a body, the body concerned may be elected in one poll. The body is considered elected if it gains the absolute majority of the votes cast. If this is not the case separate elections must be held for each function.

5.4 If there are more candidates than positions required for a body to be elected, those candidates shall be elected who are able to gain the majority of the votes in the first ballot thereby reaching the absolute majority of the votes cast.

If a second ballot has to be made for one or more functions in a body and there are still more than two candidates, the candidate with the least votes shall be eliminated.

The remaining candidates go for the next ballot. The procedure will be continued until a person has gained a simple majority of votes cast for the function that still needs to be voted on.

5.5 In the event of a tie Art 9 of the Statutes of the UIPM will be applied.

CHAPTER VI - COUNTING OF VOTES

6.1 Only valid votes cast shall be counted in an election.

6.2 In case of an odd number of votes cast, it will be rounded to reach a two thirds majority, three quarters majority or an absolute majority.

6.3 Simple majority means majority of the votes cast, even if less than 50% of the votes cast. Absolute majority means more than 50% of the votes cast.
